

2023 West Virginia Arbor Day Poster Contest Rules

Posters must be the original work of a student in the fourth or fifth grade.

The use of cartoon characters, TV and sports figures, or business names are prohibited. Many of these are copyrighted and for this reason cannot be used on posters.

All artwork on the posters must be finished and the artist's name must appear in the lower right hand corner on the front of the poster.

All posters must be created in one of the specified mediums and must be within size limits.

Posters may be done in marker, crayon, watercolor, ink, acrylic paint, tempera paint or colored pencils.

Posters must be reproducible. Collages are not acceptable (this includes anything glued on the poster). Posters may be any size between and including 8 ½" by 11" and 14" by 18". Computer generated art and printing are not acceptable.

Posters must be flat. They may not be folded, matted, mounted, laminated or framed.

The art must be related to the theme in some way and the theme must be on the poster. The 2023 theme is "Trees are . . . Different!"

All writing on the poster must be correctly spelled and easy to read from a distance.

Posters must be postmarked by April 3, 2023. Posters are to be mailed flat.

Send only one poster per grade and per school to the following address:

West Virginia Division of Forestry
Attn: Andy Sheetz
7 Players Club Drive
Charleston, WV 25311

If you have any questions, please contact me at andy.i.sheetz@wv.gov or (304) 382-9574.

Services and programs are provided by the West Virginia Division of Forestry, without regard to sex, race, age, religion, national origin ancestry, disability or any other protected group status

Acknowledgements:

The West Virginia Division of Forestry would like to thank the following for their assistance with the educational materials.